“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” (Hb. 13:8)

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*“I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”*
Jn. 6:51

The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Anticipated Mass Schedule:
Wednesday, August 14th 6:00pm

Thursday Mass Schedule:
August 15th 6:30am, 12:10pm,
& Bilingual 6:00pm

(A Holy Day of Obligation)

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

In Moses' time, the Lord God sent bread from heaven in the form of manna, which sustained the Chosen People on their lengthy and difficult journey across the desert. Centuries later, God sent the Son, the Bread of Life, who nourishes us now on our journey to God's kingdom. On our journeys, may we keep in mind that we are called to leave behind our old corrupted, sinful self and “put on the new self,” as Saint Paul wrote, our true self that is founded in Jesus.

Pastor's Post

“Our work is not in persuasion, for Christianity is most powerful when it is hated by the world.” (St. Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop and Martyr)

The Olympics in Paris, France has been a source of great consternation for many Christians and for people who have any semblance of common sense. The opening ceremony was clearly an attack on Christians throughout the world. It not only mocked “The Last Supper” event but also Michelangelo's beautiful art. The opening ceremony, in addition to mocking Christians, also attempted to raise the level of decadence another notch. The world religion in our modern society is deviant behavior and radical subjectivism whereby there are no objective, reasonable standards of morality. The mantra in society today is “You have your truth and I have my truth.” Truth cannot be contradicted. If that happens, then “You have your opinion, and I have my opinion. Now let's seek the truth.”

In addition to the highly offensive Opening of the Olympics, we were introduced to a male (XY chromosome) in the boxing ring with a female (XX) chromosome. Battering a woman by a man is a crime in our society. Yet, it is “legal” and on display for the world to see. We are expected to be tolerant.

Some people have decided to not watch the Olympics due to these highly morally offensive displays. Others remain indifferent. Still others, including so-called Christians, defend it. I personally am watching the Olympics. Too many of our athletes have trained hard for this moment. I'm not going to let a Committee of Imbeciles deter me from supporting our athletes.

We Christians must be willing to be hated by this fallen world. Christ Himself told us “If the world hates you, realize it hated me first...In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world.” (Jn. 15:18 and Jn. 16:33)

Yours in St. Ignatius of Antioch,
Fr. Joe Campion

Prayer During Hurricane Season

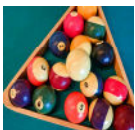

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to you, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
